Jen Garding!

PrePress: 75 years of printing industry experience

Jen and Dale

Sentinel's PrePress department is designed to receive your files, preflight them for completeness, insert them into our Imposition software, and direct them to any number of output devices.

As our Electronic PrePress Coordinator, Jen Garding plays a key role in analyzing customer copy, suggesting changes, and interacting with clients for a successful project. She, along with the entire PrePress team, strive to ensure that even the most complex jobs flow smoothly and accurately through the multiple facets of the electronic world.

There have been many changes in the industry throughout Jen's 12 years at Sentinel. She has maintained proficiency in most every program, and proven to be a valuable resource to our customers.
